West Reading High School

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, West Reading High School,
Stay thy memory ever bright,
Thou our true and guiding spirit,
Helping us to do the right.
May the colors e'er remind us
Of our fight against the wrong,
Maroon that always keeps us loyal,
Steel the symbol of the strong.

When we pass from out thy portals,
From thy all-protecting care,
We shall go prepared for service,
Willing all thy gifts to share,
May thy inspiration guide us,
As the years go passing by,
May our lives bring praise and honor,
Ever to West Reading High.

Foreword

The theme of the Vaquero this year is "There's No Business Like Show Business." In a well-known song by the same title we find the lyrics "they smile when they are low." This phrase may well describe this year's Vaquero staff. Although they encountered many difficulties, they always managed to emerge successful.

The staff would like to congratulate the Class of 1959 and hope that they too emerge successful in all they do.

Mary Alderman,
Editor-in-Chief.

Dedication

The purpose of a yearbook dedication is to honor someone for some outstanding deed he has done. This choice became exceedingly difficult for this year's graduating class. The difficulty arose because we owe our successful school life to so many wonderful people. Without the guiding hands of our parents our graduation would not have been possible. Neither can we overlook the helpful advice and sincere trust of our teachers.

For these reasons and many more, the Class of 1959 is most privileged to dedicate this yearbook to their parents and teachers.

King and I

School Board

"Behind the scene" honors go to the Board of Education. This group directs the functions of our schools and keeps the show running smoothly. The board members are elected by the voters of West Reading, and they give their time and talents to improve the standards of our schools.

Let the School Board take a bow for its limitless devotion and endless efforts. Salute this borough-elect group of outstanding citizens for a job well done.

Vaquero 1959

Congratulations to the VAQUERO Staff on the publication of a yearbook which so well represents the activities of the West Reading High School and the personalities of the Class of 1959. Many thanks, too, to Miss Stoudt, for her dedication to the job she did so efficiently in directing your activities.

You have recorded in these pages memories, scenes and events of many happy days in West Reading High School. Thirty-three strong, you join the long list of graduates who have carried with them the bonds of friendship made here. Continue these with both teachers and classmates.

The lesson of knowing yourself and being true to yourself is one great purpose of education. The attribute of human dignity is hard won and with difficulty retained. If your high school course has not created in you as an individual this guiding philosophy, it has in a large measure failed.

Just as you continually strived for higher scholarship, so pursue the new experiences in life as they present themselves.

Best wishes from myself and the faculty for your successes in future endeavors.

C. J. Stauffer.

Mr. Charles J. Stauffer
SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

For your clever theme and the interesting style in which the 1959 VAQUERO was developed, the staff is deserving of "that extra bow" so familiar to show business.

It is especially appropriate that this theme involves the entire gamut of human emotions so typical of the adult world you are entering. Two aspects of the book will most assuredly serve to make your life richer and fuller — music and a sense of humor.

Without the timeworn "Song in your Heart" and "Smile be your Umbrella," your achievements will indeed be dull. Melody and a merry heart are basic ingredients for the symphony of life.

As you refresh memories of high school days each time you scan these pages, the true value of teachers and classmates will become increasingly significant. May this reminiscence serve to lift you upward.

I hope your future brings praise from the critics and good health from the Creator.

"Act well your part, there all the honor lies."

We take great pride in introducing the stars of our production, the Senior Class of West Reading High School. "Small but mighty", these seniors have worked hard and diligently to be graduating as the class of '59.

Many personalities comprise the senior class; each being a specific individual.

Nevertheless, the seniors are a hard-working group when they work together. That is why they made their class projects so successful.

We wish the seniors the best enovation as they embark on their separate careers and surely wish them, each one, the best roles that life has to offer.

This year was very favorable for the Juniors who were being prepared for their final year next September.

The Juniors' project for making money was in the form of a dance called "Harvest Moon" which was the first dance of the year. The Juniors worked together as a group and because of this teamwork they developed a different and exciting dance that was very successful.

The high-stepping Juniors had their presence felt in the boys' sports of football, basketball, swimming, track, and baseball, while the girls added a lot of spirit in the sports of hockey, basketball, and cheering. They were also well represented in every activity offered.

In the spring the eleventh grade class trip took them to Washington, D. C., where they toured the grounds of the Capitol.

Miss Mabel Fritz and Mr. Alexander Campbell, the Junior class advisors, gave their guidance helpfully and willingly. The Juniors are greatly indebted to them for their good work.

Health Committee. The boys participated in Junior High basketball and track. The Eighth Grade held its annual Christmas party which was attended by parents in the gymnasium.

Under the capable supervision of Mrs. Mary E. Gresh and Mr. E. H. Manwiller the members of the "Class of '63" were successfully guided through their second year of Junior High.

Seventh Grade

Under the capable supervision of Miss Dorothy Stoudt and Mr. John Shalter, the students of the seventh grade experienced the "ups" and "downs" of their new environment.

Their interests followed many different paths. Some of the male members of this class participated in track and were on the junior high basketball team. The students were well represented in a wide range of school organizations and clubs. Jean Mogel and Glenn Gasser represented their classmates at the Student Council meetings.

The Seventh Grade was well represented at all school activities. We wish them "clear sailing" in their next years at W.R.H.S.

This year Student Council, the directors of the year's productions, proved very active during the school months. Members of Council are elected by their homerooms at the end of each school year.

Among the many projects led by student council were the sale of Christmas cards, a dance, sale of sweatshirts, sale of booster badges, and the initiation of Student Day.

Council renewed last year's activities of "Personality of the Month", pep rallies, the suggestion box, check room for coats at the basketball games, color day, and selling decals.

Because the new schedule eliminated the activity period, Student Council met every other Tuesday at noon. Their capable advisors were Mr. William Dowling, Mrs. Marjorie Henne, and Mr. Alexander Campbell.

Personality of the month.

STUDENT COUNCIL EXECUTIVE

These vigorous lads and lassies held the highest roles offered at West Reading High.

Under the leadership of Edward Kuhn these top five represented ninth through twelfth grades. They alone decided many wise moves taken in the 1958-59 season meetings for this group, which were held bi-weekly.

A County Student Council Convention, held at Brandywine Heights, was attended by the entire executive committee with Mrs. Marjorie Henne.

A State Convention which was held at New Kensington, was attended by Ruth Kissinger and George Balmer.

Membership in the National Honor Society in the Senior High School and the National Honor Society in the Junior High School confers distinction on those students who are outstanding in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Since the groups are small most of the activities are carried on jointly.

In our school National Honor Society is not primarily a service organization, but students attain membership because of their outstanding service in various areas. Among the group's activities in the past have been sport hops, formal dances, assembly programs, Holy Week devotions, and a party at the year's end in honor of senior members.

Monitors

The monitors are found in the halls; their main purposes are directing hall traffic and keeping the noise to a minimum.

This past year the monitors held monthly meetings to discuss the problems that they faced on their posts and tried to solve these problems. A new monitor post was added to help solve some of the hall congestion, also at the end of every quarter monitor posts were changed. This group was advised by Mrs. Mary Gresh and Miss Mabel Fritz.

At the end of the year a picnic was held by the monitors.

"Show Business" served as the theme for the 1959 VAQUERO. The green and black cover is symbolic of the graduating class's colors.

Like all plays there must be a director, serving this job was Mary Alderman, editor. There must also be a producer, and filling this job was Miss Dorothy Stoudt, advisor. Through the work of the advisor, editor, and staff, the VAQUERO has completed another successful year at West Reading High School.

"School Daze", the VAQUERO'S November dance, proved to be a worth while venture both socially and economically. The dance was highlighted by the election of an Activity King and Queen. The King was Edward Kuhn, Jr., and the Queen was Ruth Kissinger. The attendants were Linda Wolf and James Walker.

Every show must have its publicity agent. Filling this requirement, W.R.H.S. has the LARIAT. The LARIAT is the school newspaper which is published once a month during the school year; it informs the students of the activities throughout the school and community.

Under the leadership of Editor-in-Chief, Carol Hagenbuch, and advisors, Mrs. Helen Bolton and Miss Mabel Fritz, the LARIAT again made a commendable showing.

Anything from grade school activities to high school athletics and scholastics can be found in print in the LARIAT. The LARIAT staff also sponsored a school dance during March.

Library Club

Few of us are aware of the work that goes into making our school library one of the best. Our librarian, Mrs. Mary Ann Lash, with the aid of the members of the Library Club, keeps our library up to date in news and methods. This busy club is composed of members from seventh to twelfth grades. These students meet on two different days, Tuesday and Wednesday. They are also in charge of the library situated in the elementary building.

During Book Week they are busy as beavers decorating so it is pleasant to work there. Christmas time also finds a lovely decorative atmosphere about the library. Students take care of the bulletin board. They also enjoy covered dish socials throughout the year.

Following the motto: "We Serve Others", the Junior Red Cross, under the guidance of Mrs. Mary E. Gresh, filled forty-five Christmas stockings with useful articles for Berks Heim. These busy workers also made slippers, bibs, crossword puzzle books, and stuffed toys. Christmas trees were trimmed at Berks Heim by members of this organization.

Planning the projects is the main function of the Junior Red Cross Council. Members of the Council are: Barbara Broome, Mildred Dunkelberger, Laraine Gehret, Judith Heron, Joyce Holtzman, Robbi Sittler, Edith Sweigart, and Rebecca Wolfe.

Several members of the Chorus were chosen to participate in Senior County Chorus — sopranos, Mary Alderman and Carol Hagenbuch; altos, Joan Rossi, Marjorie Lechleitner, and Lynda Reichert; tenors, Walter Savage and Edward Jones; basses, David Gottshall and Walter Ruemmler.

The annual spring music concert, presented by the vocal music organizations under the leadership of Mrs. William C. Dowling, was given on April 24th.

West Reading has apparently started on the comeback trail in football. After dropping all of their seven games last year, the Cowboys came through under the watchful eye of Mr. Alex Campbell and Mr. Gerald Schaeffer with three wins and five defeats.

In the initial game of the season the Cowboys upset the Exeter Eagles by a score of 24-19. Senior Bill Munroe's steal of an Exeter pitch-out in the remaining seconds of the final quarter gave the Cowboys their first victory in 10 starts. In the next game the Cowboys were defeated 14-0 by Upper Dublin.

In the following game the Cowboys came to life with a 7-6 win over the Schwenksville Bluejays. Mike Formicone's 85-yard punt touchdown return and Bob Siegel's extra point carry paved the way for victory. Barry Berkenstock's tremendous defensive play helped save the day. Following this game the Cowboys lost to their traditional rival, Wyomissing 39-0, and to Pottsgrove by a 14-7 score.

On November 1, West Reading edged Jenkintown 20-19 on the Cowboys' field. The Cowboys were sparked with TD's by Rick Scaless, Jim Walker, and Rick Geiss. The Cowboys, however, dropped their last two games.

Selected on the Berks All-County Football team was West Reading's tackle, Hans Hass. Receiving honorable mention were: captain, Rick Scalese; end, Barry Berkenstock; and center, Rick Geiss.

The leading scorers this year were half-backs, Rick Scalese and Mike Formicone, with 19 points each.

Departing seniors are Rick Scalese, Rick Geiss, Jim Walker, Eric Heinz, Barry Berkenstock, Bill Munroe, and Joe Kapelski.

The West Reading Varsity took the sports oscar for the 1958-59 sports year by winning the PIAA Class "C" State Championship. The Cowboys opened the season with five exhibition games, winning all five. The Bilgermen continued on their winning ways by downing all eight league opponents twice, and defeating another non-league opponent. The only loss suffered by the Cowboys was in their Berks County Championship game suffered at the hands of the Kutztown Cougars, Eastern Division Champs, and State Class "B" Champs. However, the Cowboys quickly rebounded from this loss and went on to defeat all five opponents in their march to the State Throne.

Led by record-breaking Ron Krick, who scored 961 points, Ed Kuhn and his clutch shooting, back court antics of Grant Krow and Rick Scalese and the defensive demon Ed Goodwin, the Cowboys reigned victorious. Mike Formicone was a very efficient number six man and often got the relief role. Other members of the Varsity were Seniors: Jack Huesman and Jim Walker; Juniors: Bob Wheeler, Hans Hass, and Denny Becker.

EASTERN STATE FINAL

Wilkes Barre Township proved a very rough customer for the Cowboys at Hazelton. The Cowboys were forced to go all out to win 55-42. Great clutch playing by Grant Krow and Ron Krick won the game.

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The West Reading team captured its first Class "C" State Championship by trouncing Lilly-Washington 74-55 at Albright. After a bad first half the Cowboys roared back with great team playing. Krick had 35 points to end this great season in West Reading history.

Although somewhat overshadowed by a brilliant varsity season, the junior varsity managed to produce many thrilling games. Under their new mentor, Richard Sherry, the team developed as the year progressed. The "spotlight" of the year fell on the second Hamburg game. The spirited J. V. Cowboys brushed aside their opponents in a close, hard-fought game by a score of 42-41. The Hamburg team had only lost one game until this defeat.

High-scorer for the season was Jack Moyer who racked up a total of 230 points. Leroy Bard also made an impression with his aggressive playing. Other boys who saw a great deal of action were Danny DeCarlo, Gaton Lackwood, Ralph Gingrich, Ronnie Harleman, and Jim Cremer. The prospects for next year seem very good since the majority of the boys are only in ninth and tenth grade.

Junior High Basketball

Keeping with the trend of winning basketball teams, the junior high team placed second in their division. The baby Cowboys lost only to Mt. Penn and Gov. Mifflin. Tom Wills led the defensive playing. The most spectacular game was provided by Daniel Boone, whom the team defeated by a score of 25-24. Dave Shiery clinched the game by dropping two foul shots in the closing seconds. Wills, Tom Hunsinger, Alan Schuler, and Bob Bupp provided the necessary height for the team.

Hockey

The girls' hockey team under the guidance of Mrs. Jeanne Smith, compiled a record of 2 wins, 2 losses, and 2 ties.

The most exciting game of the season was played with Muhlenberg. At half time the Cowgirls found themselves behind by one goal. In the second half the girls scored 2 goals which gave them this outstanding victory over the Muhls.

Barbara Strause was the high scorer for the Cowgirls with 4 goals. The Cowgirls scored a total of 6 goals to their opponents' 6. Bonnielyn Betz and Carol Hagenbuch served as co-captains.

After many years of championship teams, coach John Shalter is in the process of rebuilding. Although the record of 1 win and 4 losses isn't too impressive, many competent performances were given by Dennis Reinert and seniors, Bill Munroe, Charles Kerschner, Charles Rulapach, and Barry Auger. Reinert also put West Reading on the sports map by placing in state diving competition.

Champions again! This phrase fully describes the winning season posted by Mrs. Jeanne Smith's girls' basketball squad. Even in the beginning of the season, hopes weren't shattered when losing a one-point heart-breaker to Muhlenberg in the final second. Through the rest of the season they worked and fought until the Cowgirls clinched the title in the finale with a victory over Mt. Penn. The final record was 5 wins and 1 loss.

Six outgoing seniors will be leaving the scene this year: the co-captains, Joan Rossi and Barbara Entzminger; Carol Hagenbuch, Bonnie Betz, Barbara Wills, and Carol Bohn. Among these, Barbara Entzminger was top performer with 86 points, and Joan Rossi collected 44 assists.

Sharing the limelight with the seniors are guards, Linda Wolf and Christa Hass; forwards, Carole Kline, Ruth Kissinger, and Barbara Strause.

Still with the winning line-up, the stand-ins provided the exceptional spirit which helped pace the girls to victory.

So again, we are proud to salute our girls — "Champions".

Baseball

As spring rolls around the well-known sport of baseball emerges from the wings to take its place in the spotlight. This year the team, under the direction of Mr. Gerald Schaffer, will depend on many returnees to carry them to victory. Among the previous varsity lettermen we find Rick Scalese, a speedster and a good batsman; Mike Formicone, a strong south-paw; and more strength in Bob Seigel, Jim Bohn, Louie Philippine, Jim Cremer, and Eric Heinz.

Cowboy competition exists in the form of Gov. Mifflin, Muhlenberg, Wilson, Mt. Penn, and Exeter in the Central Division. The initial game is with Muhlenberg, and the season draws to a close with Mt. Penn.

Coach John Shaner's 1959 track and field team was bolstered by 7 returning lettermen and several newcomers. The returning lettermen were: seniors — Bill Munroe, Ed Kuhn, Grant Krow, Fred Hafer, Jim Walker; junior — Ed Goodwin; and sophomore — Ron Krick. This year was the third year of varsity track for Kuhn and Krow. Munroe was an excellent half-miler and a member of the medley relay team. Kuhn ran the 440 and also was a member of the medley relay team. Krow was a broad jumper and an outstanding high jumper. Hafer threw the discus and the shot put. Walker was a high jumper and a hurdle man. Goodwin ran in the 100 yard dash and the medley relay. Krick threw the javelin and the shot put.

Other members of the team this year were: seniors — Jack Huesman and Joe Kapelski; juniors — Bob Wheeler, Dave Gottshall, Walt Ruemmler, Bob Garner, Hans Haas, and El Strubble; and sophomores — George Balmer, Leon Shirey, Ed Jones, and Eric Summons.

The Cowboys opened their 1959 track season April 8 against Exeter and Daniel Boone in a triangular meet at Exeter. The 30th West Reading Interscholastic Meet was held on May 2. This was the farewell appearance in high school sports for Hafer, Kuhn, Krow, Huesman, Walker, and Munroe.
